

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

SUSAN LYNN RYDER,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 1:15-cv-46

Hon. Janet T. Neff

vs.

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's motion for award of attorney fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b). (ECF No. 24). The motion is unopposed.

I. Background

Plaintiff filed this action appealing the Commissioner's decision denying benefits. See Compl. (ECF No. 1). In a judgment entered on February 11, 2016, the Court reversed and remanded the Commissioner's decision pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further administrative proceedings. See Judgment (ECF No. 18). On January 23, 2017, the Court awarded plaintiff an attorney's fee under the Equal Access to Justice Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2412 ("EAJA") in the amount of $4,287.50. See Order (ECF No. 23). Plaintiff was subsequently awarded disability benefits, including past-due benefits in the amount of $85,343.00. See Notice of Award (ECF 24-1, PageID.421). Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b), plaintiff's counsel filed the present motion requesting fees for work performed in this Court under contingent fee arrangement, in which plaintiff agreed to pay counsel a fee equal to "twenty-five percent (25%) of the past-due benefits" awarded. See Fee Agreement (ECF No. 24-2). Plaintiff's counsel seeks $10,600.00 in fees and costs, as detailed in his application.

II. Discussion

Plaintiff's motion seeks an award of attorney fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b) for work done before this Court. Attorney fee awards in social security cases brought in this Court are authorized under 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1)(A), which provides in pertinent part:

Whenever a court renders a judgment favorable to a claimant under this title [42 U.S.C. § 401 et seq.] who was represented before the court by an attorney, the court may determine and allow as part of its judgment a reasonable fee for such representation, not in excess of 25 percent of the total of the past-due benefits to which the claimant is entitled by reason of such judgment . . .

An attorney fee award is appropriate under § 406(b)(1)(A) when a court remands a case to the Commissioner for further proceedings and the Commissioner subsequently awards the claimant past-due benefits. Bergen v. Commissioner of Social Security, 454 F.3d 1273 (11th Cir. 2006). The statutory limit on attorney fees arose, in part, as a response to the inordinately large fees charged by attorneys, which sometimes consisted of one-third to one-half of the claimant's past-due benefits. Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 804 (2002). While the SSA typically withholds 25% of the past-due benefits for payment of attorney fees, separate attorney fee awards are made under § 406 for work performed before the administrative agency and for work performed in the Federal Court. See Horenstein v. Secretary of Health and Human Services, 35 F.3d 261, 262 (6th Cir. 1994) (concluding that under 42 U.S.C. §§ 406(a) and 406(b), "each tribunal may award fees only for the work done before it").

As discussed, under the contingent fee agreement, plaintiff agreed to pay counsel a fee of 25% of the past due benefits resulting from her claim. In evaluating fees under § 406(b), there is "a rebuttable presumption that an attorney would receive the full 25% contingency fee under contract unless 1) the attorney engaged in improper conduct or was ineffective, or 2) the attorney would enjoy an undeserved windfall due to the client's large back pay award or the attorney's relatively minimal effort." Hayes v. Secretary of Health and Human Services, 923 F.2d 418, 419 (6th Cir. 1990).

With respect to the first consideration, there is no suggestion that Attorney Rinck engaged in improper conduct or was ineffective. On the contrary, he secured a very favorable result for his client. With respect to the second consideration, the Court must consider whether the requested fee will result in an undeserved windfall to counsel.

[A] windfall can never occur when, in a case where a contingent fee contract exists, the hypothetical hourly rate determined by dividing the number of hours worked for the claimant into the amount of the fee permitted under the contract is less than twice the standard rate for such work in the relevant market. We believe that a multiplier of 2 is appropriate as a floor in light of indications that social security attorneys are successful in approximately 50% of the cases they file in the courts. Without a multiplier, a strict hourly rate limitation would insure that social security attorneys would not, averaged over many cases, be compensated adequately.

Id. at 422 (footnotes omitted). "In other words, a hypothetical hourly rate that is less than twice the standard rate is per se reasonable, and a hypothetical hourly rate that is equal to or greater than twice the standard rate may well be reasonable." Id.

The SSA withheld $21,335.75 of the past due benefits for payment of attorney fees. Of that amount, Attorney Rinck was authorized to receive a fee of $5,376.53 for work performed in the administrative agency. See Authorization to Charge and Collect Fee (ECF No. 26-1 at PageID.434). Attorney Rinck's time sheet reflects that he spent a total of 26.50 hours working on this matter in this Court. See Itemized Statement of Time (ECF No. 24, PageID.417). While Attorney Rinck could have requested a fee in the amount of $15,959.22 (i.e., the balance of plaintiff's withheld past-due benefits), he limited his fee request to $10,600.00. Based on the time expended, this requested fee results in a hypothetical hourly rate of $400.00. The Court has considered an hourly rate of $175.00 as reasonable in Social Security Appeals, establishing a Hayes “floor” of $350.00 per hour. Attorney Rinck’s hypothetical hourly rate of $400.00 is above that floor. However, given the exceptional result obtained by him in this case, the undersigned concludes that counsel’s requested fee of $10,600.00 is reasonable under § 406(b)(1)(A).

Finally, this fee award is subject to offset for the previously awarded EAJA fee. See Gisbrecht, 535 U.S. at 796 (“Congress harmonized fees payable by the Government under EAJA with fees payable under § 406(b) out of the claimant’s past-due Social Security benefits in this manner: Fee awards may be made under both prescriptions, but the claimant’s attorney must ‘refun[d] to the claimant the amount of the smaller fee.’”). As discussed, the Court has awarded Attorney Rinck fees under the EAJA in the amount of $4,287.50. Thus, counsel’s fee of $10,600.00 should be reduced by this previous EAJA fee award, resulting in a net fee award from this Court of $6,312.50.

III. Recommendation

Accordingly, I respectfully recommend that plaintiff’s motion for award of attorney fees (ECF No. 24) be GRANTED in the amount of $6,312.50.
